Also, I have served on the editorial board of the Journal of the American Taxation Association and on the Editorial Board of The Accounting Historians Journal and Accounting History.

I served several years as co-editor of a column on computer applications in The Tax Adviser.

In various years, I have served as a reviewer for both the AAA Southeast Regional Meeting, the AAA Southwest Regional Meeting, the AAA Annual Meeting, Accounting History International Conference and for Advances in Taxation, Research in Accounting Regulation, Journal of Legal Tax Research, Accounting Horizons, Accounting History, Critical Perspectives on Accounting, Issues in Accounting Education, Journal of the American Taxation Association, and for the Accounting Historians Journal. I have served as an outside reviewer for tenure and promotion decisions.

I have served on and chaired numerous committees at both the School of Accountancy and University levels including many doctoral dissertation committees. I have also directed honor theses. Some of the committee assignments have been: Search Committees for Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs (twice, including chairperson), Graduate School Dean and Law School Dean, School of Accountancy Tenure Committee (chair), University Tenure Review Committee,

Friends of Library Executive Board, Honors Council, Library Building Planning Committee, Commencement, Summer School, Accreditation, University Research Board, Intellectual Property Advisory Committee and Scholarship Committees, Faculty Search Committee, Elsie Hood Outstanding Teacher Selection Committee (chaired twice), United Way Campaign Committee, SACS Reaccreditation Team Governance and Administration (chair) and SACS Reaccreditation Team Financial and Physical Resources, Academic Freedom and Faculty Responsibility (chair), AACSB Faculty Definitions (chair), Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning Advisory Board.

I co-wrote the 1,000+ page accreditation report for the reaccreditation of the School of Accountancy in 1992.

I have served on several student-oriented committees, including the Wesley Foundation Board of Directors, M-Book Committee, Adult Learners Task Force, Junior College Liaison Committee, Junior College Articulation Committee, and the Academic Discipline Committee.

I have served as a faculty mentor for three McNair Scholars and as the mentor for two Women's Council Scholars who were accounting majors.
